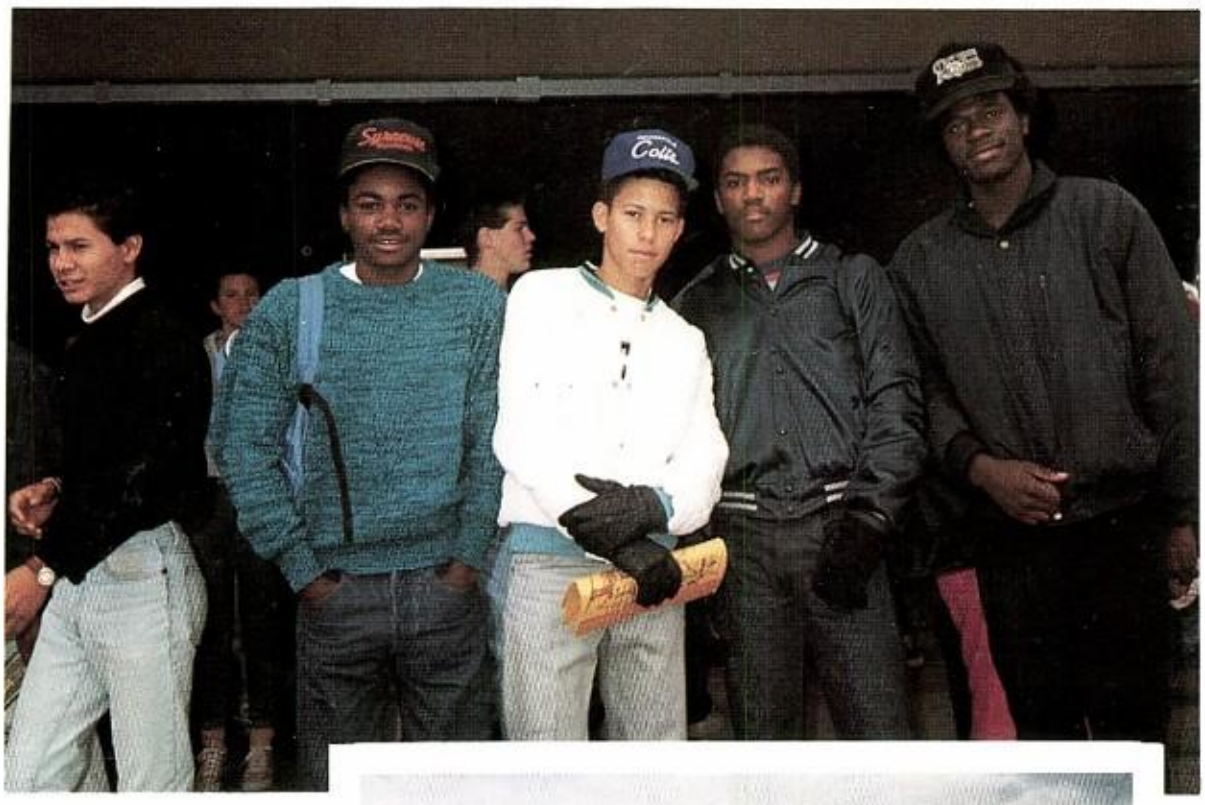
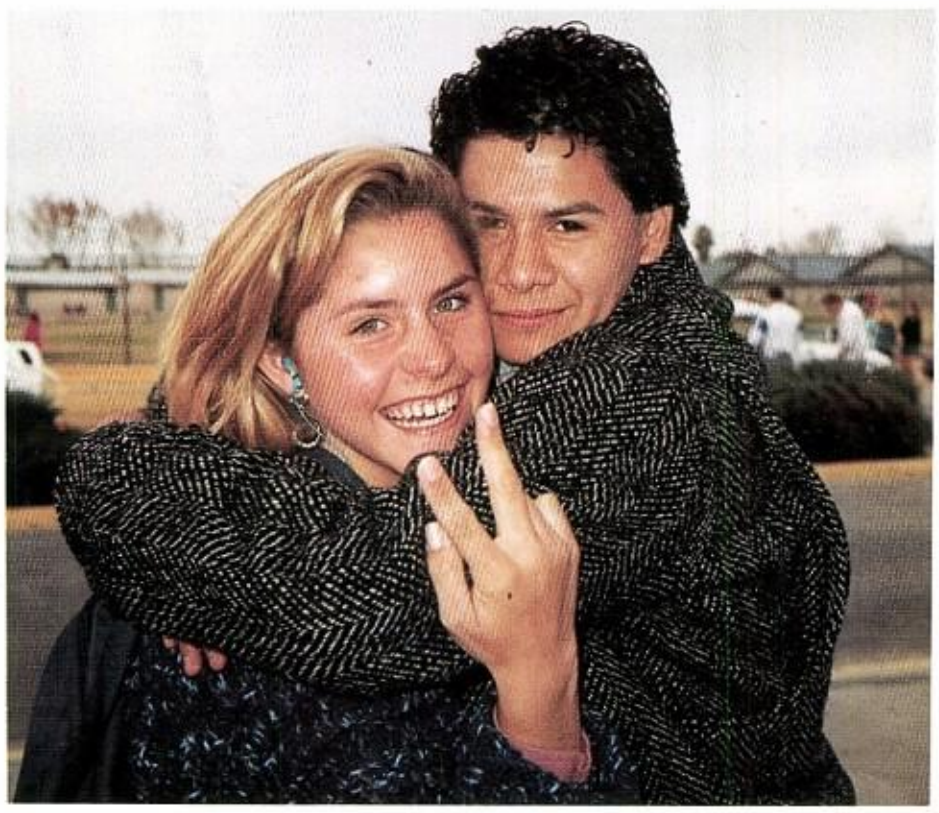
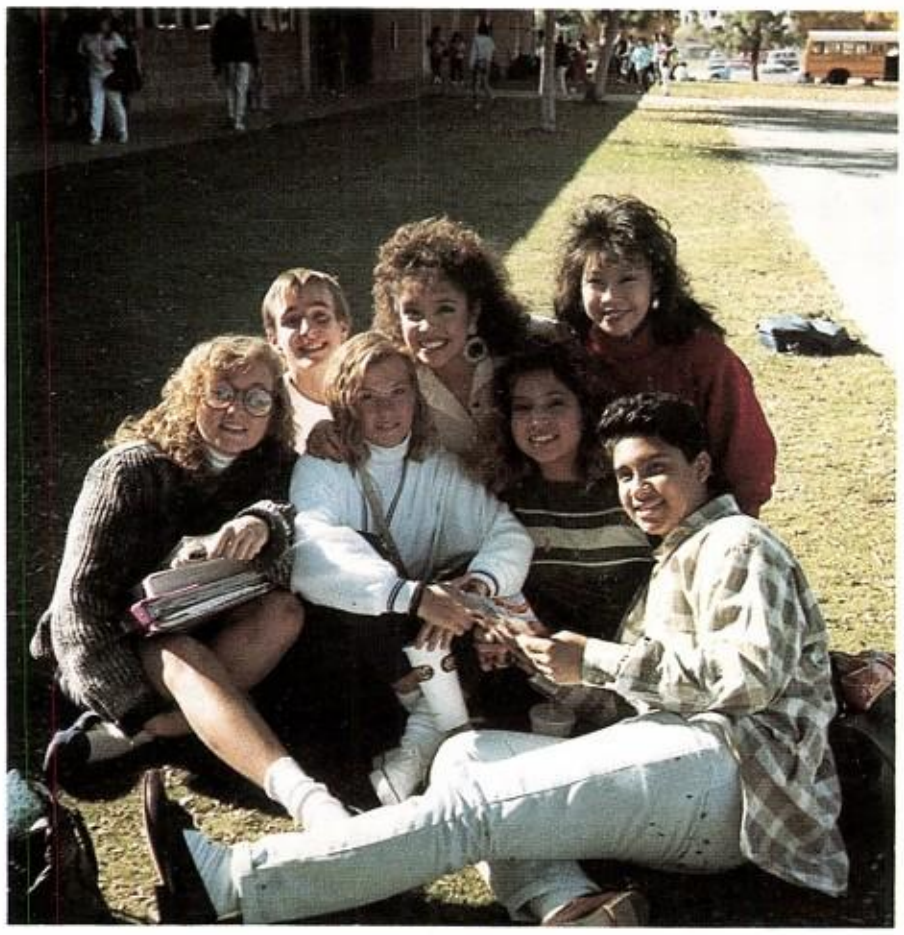
From the Heart

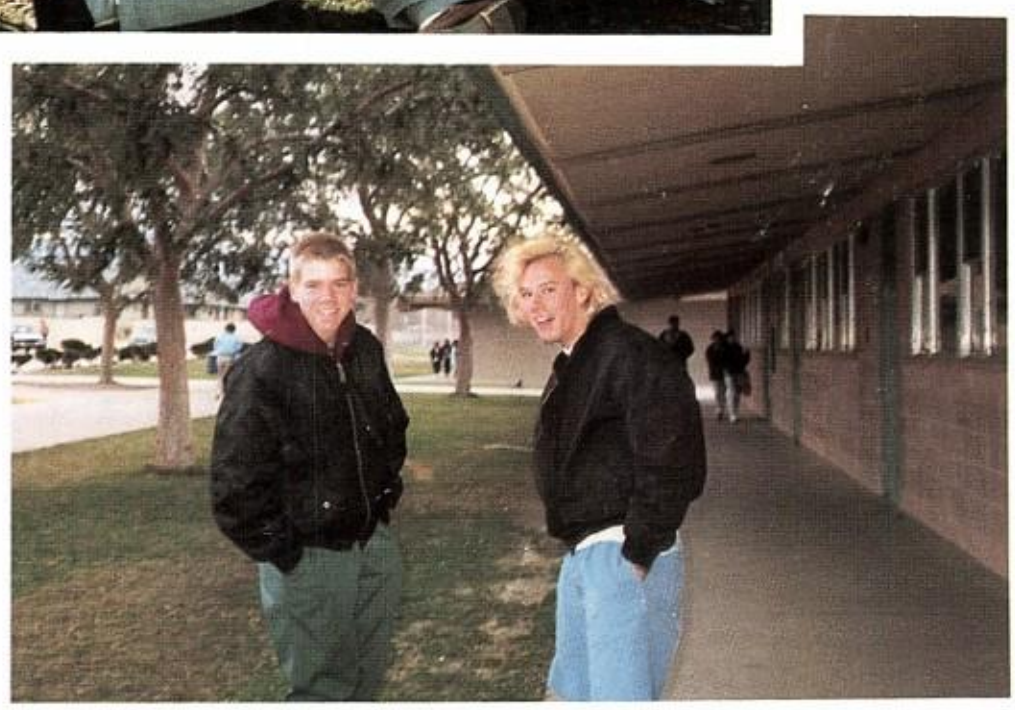
With apologies to the Constitution:

We, the yearbook staff, in order to form a reminder of our year, establish this book to ensure your satisfaction, provide a history for Foothill High School, promote the spirit and secure the memories of this year for ourselves and our posterity, hereby establish and provide this record of the 1987-88 school year.







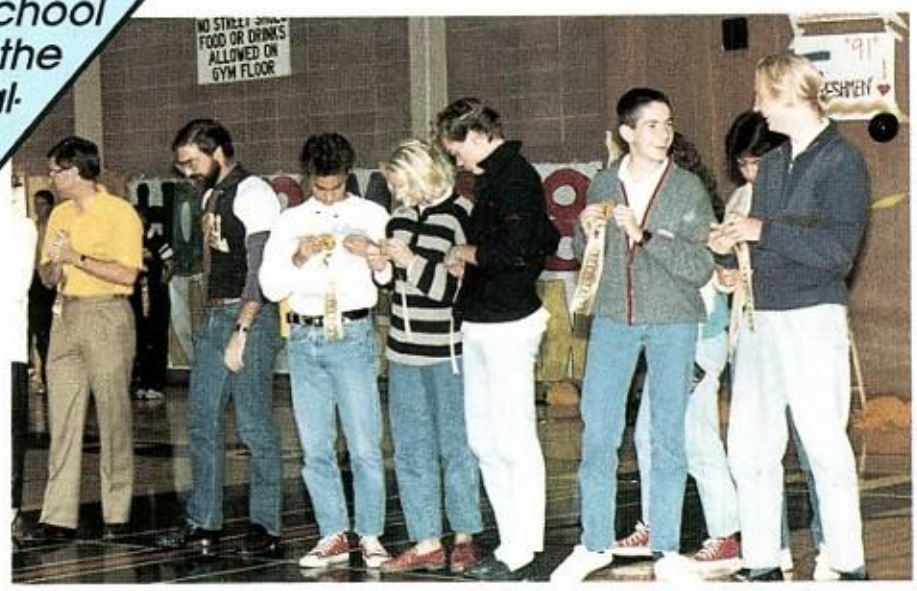


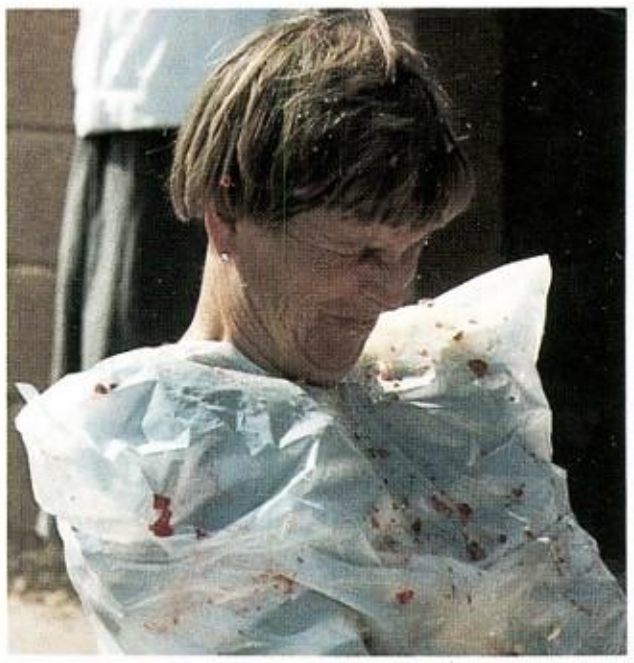
The people of Foothill High School: unique, fun, spirited, hip, happening, and now! The 1987-88 school year brought friends and good times, activities and wild times, classes and study time, and last, but not least, weekends and party time.

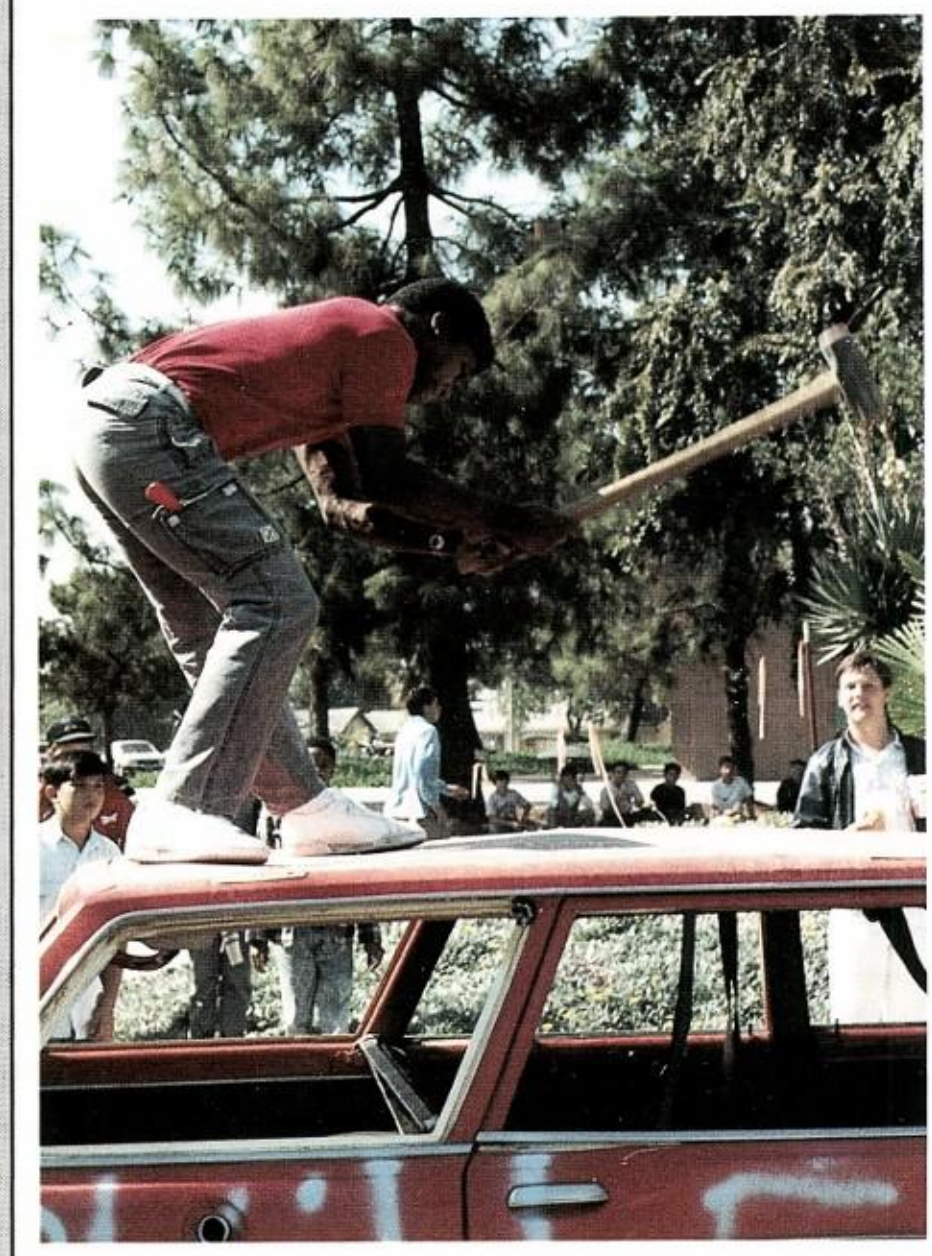
To the seniors of Foothill High School — Congratulations and good luck in life! To the Juniors — You're almost there! To the Sophomores — two down, two to go! To the Freshmen — You've only just begun!

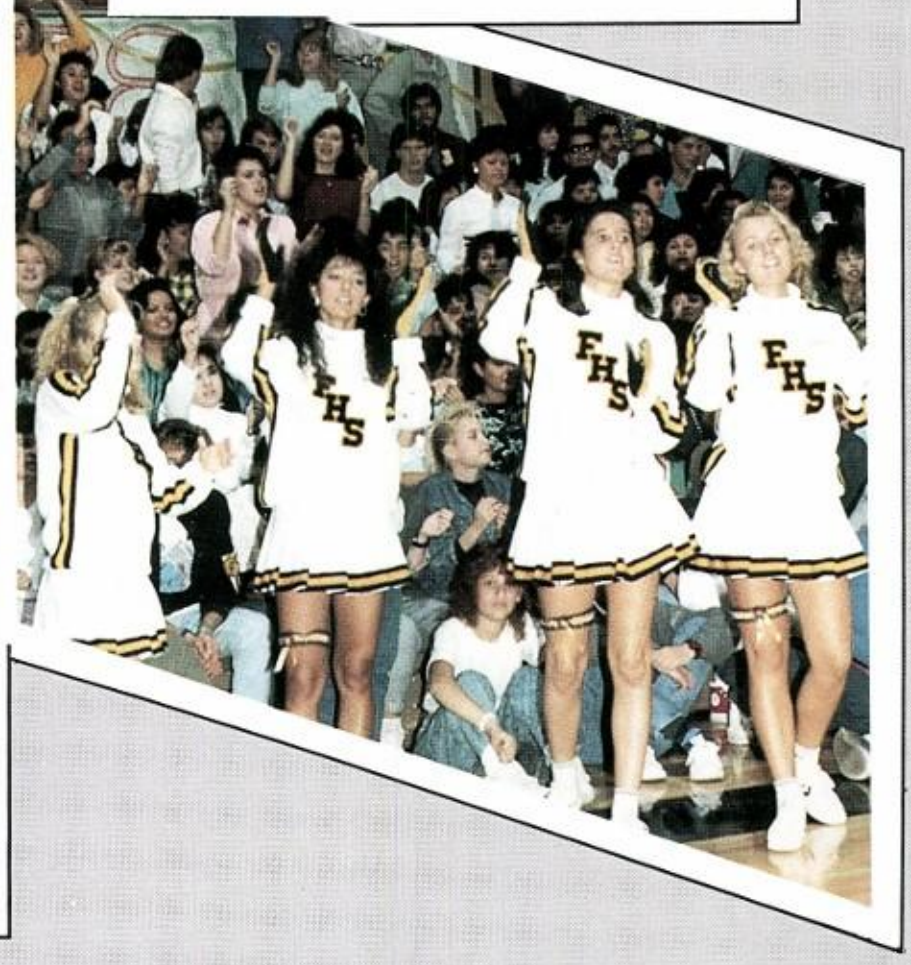
The activities of Foothill High School are always unique — from rallies to carnivals from the 100 Club to Almost Anything Goes. The happenings of this school are wild and crazy — expect the unexpected! There were always fun and different things to do at lunch and after school, like volleyball and club activities.

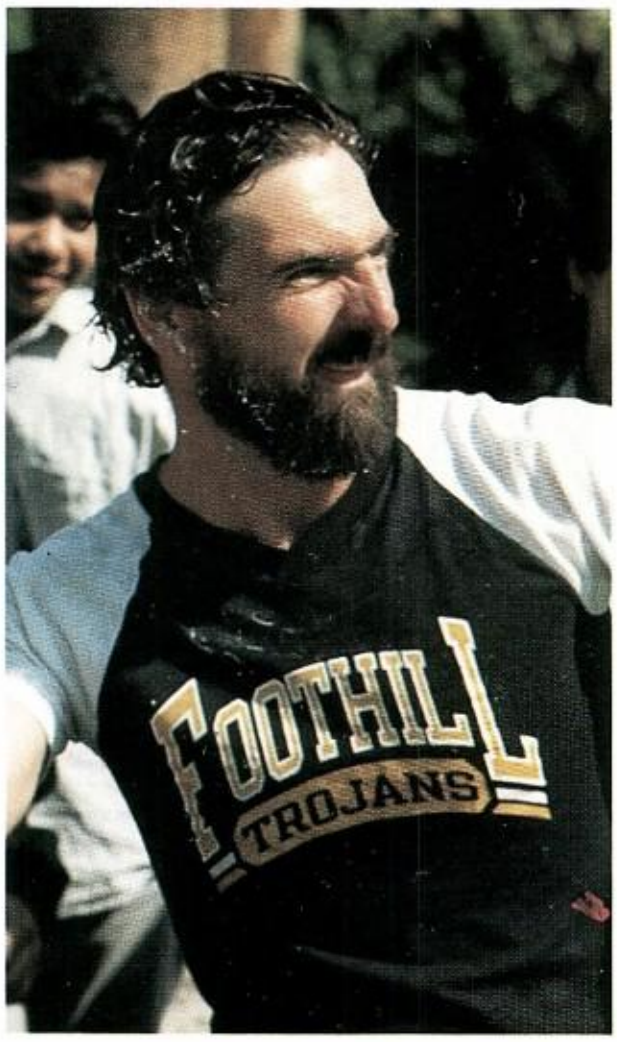
Involvement marked the Trojans, from sports and clubs to community service. If it happened, we were there.

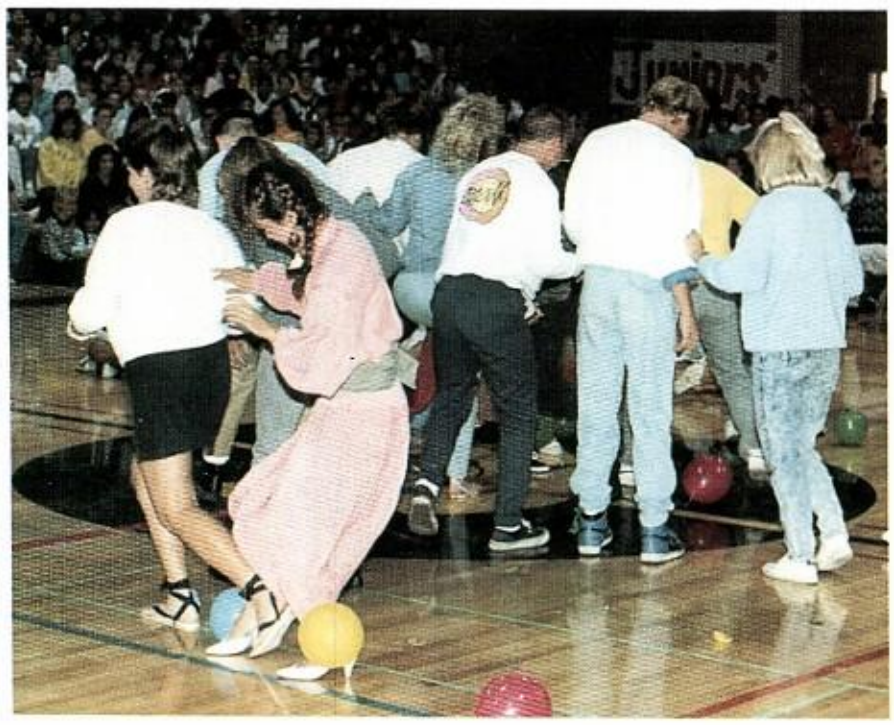


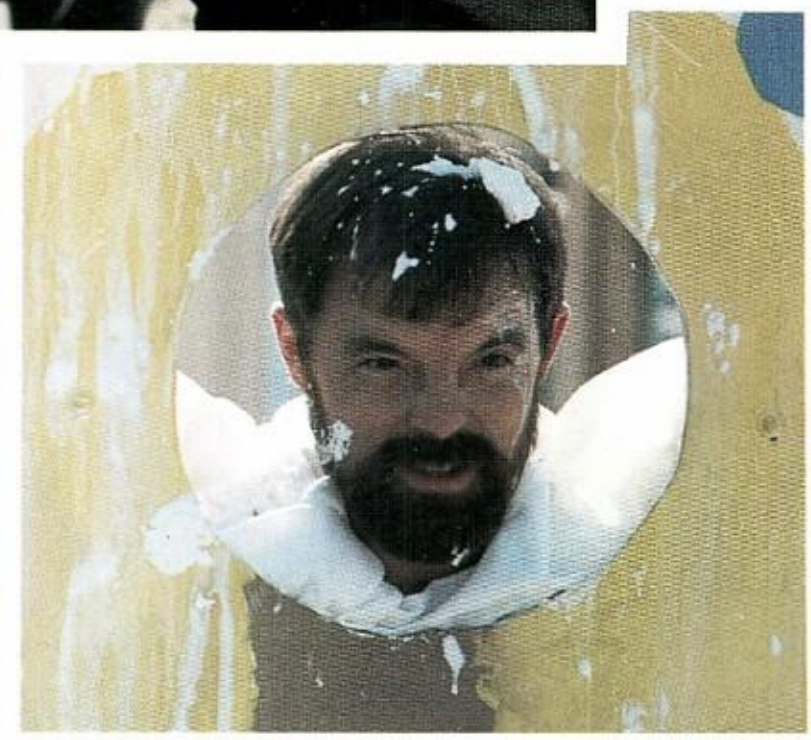










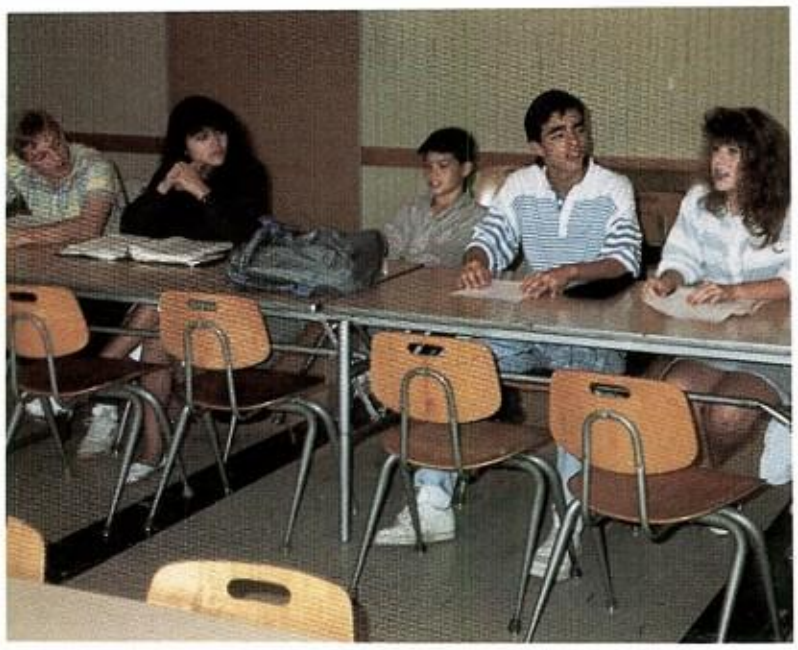


Feel the Beat

Our Art Club united with other schools and painted a GET bus for the Christmas Parade. Our drama department achieved outstanding awards at a competition in Utah. The band received awards in competitions also.

The students of FHS always took pride in their school and promoted spirit. Thus, 1987-88 was a memorable school year.

At the center of Foothill High School were the classes, where we learned, met people, caught up on some sleep, and found out what was happening on the weekend. It was also where we chewed off all of our fingernails when we knew our homework wasn't done, and where we would stare blankly at the tests sitting on our desks.

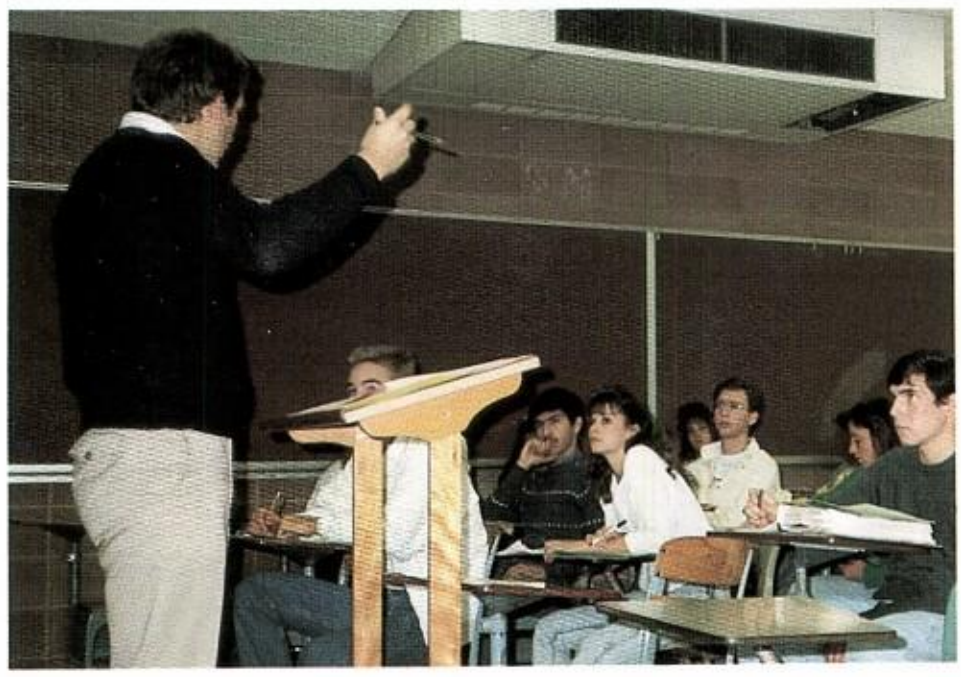


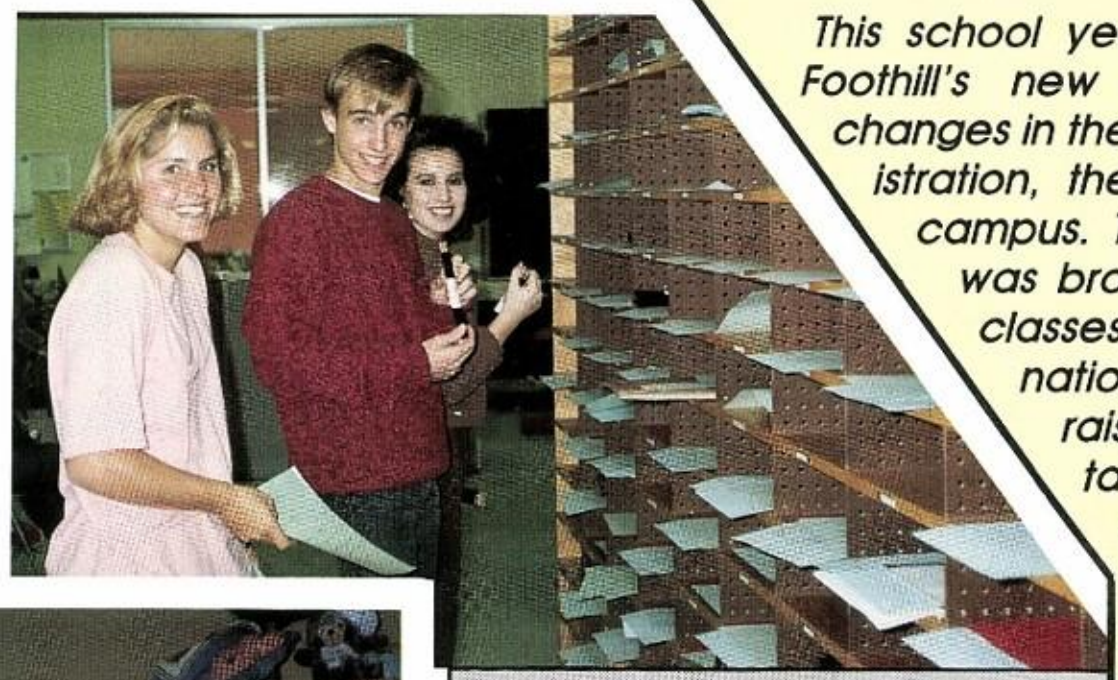
"How can I possibly be expected to go to school on a day like this?"
· James Wheeler, commenting on every day of the year.

"It was fun while it lasted!"
· Bryan Pruett

"What homework?"
· Tricia Mack

"It's hard but rewarding."
· Jennifer Hartenberger





Heart of the Campus

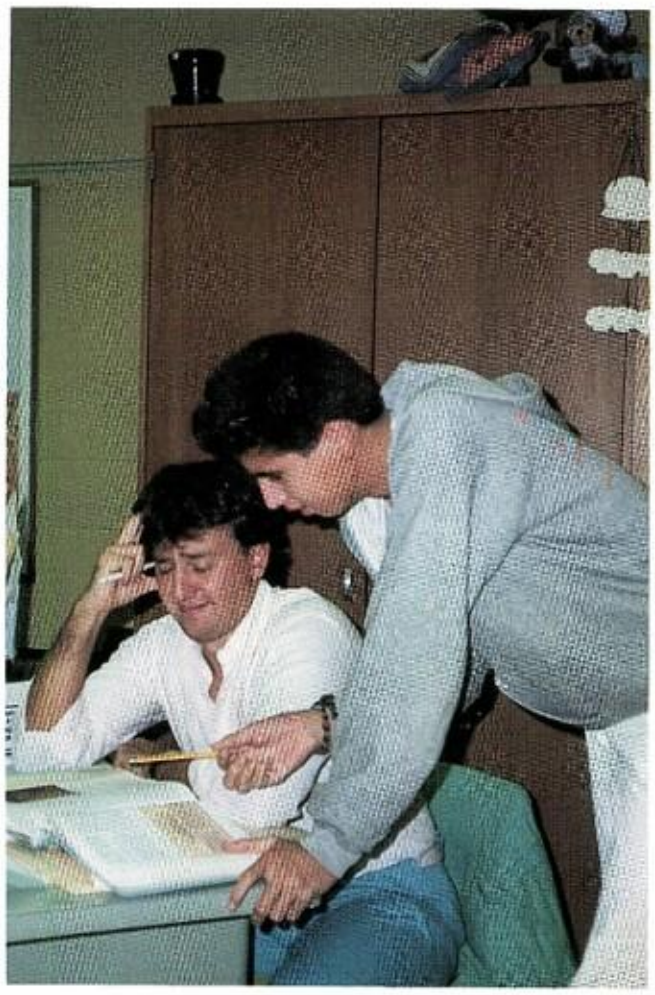
This school year was marked by Foothill's new start. This meant changes in the classes, the administration, the policies, and the campus. The pride of Foothill was brought back into the classes and campus. International Baccalaureate raised Foothill's expectations in academics, and our teams excelled in sports. The spirit is back at Foothill, and it started in the heart of the campus.

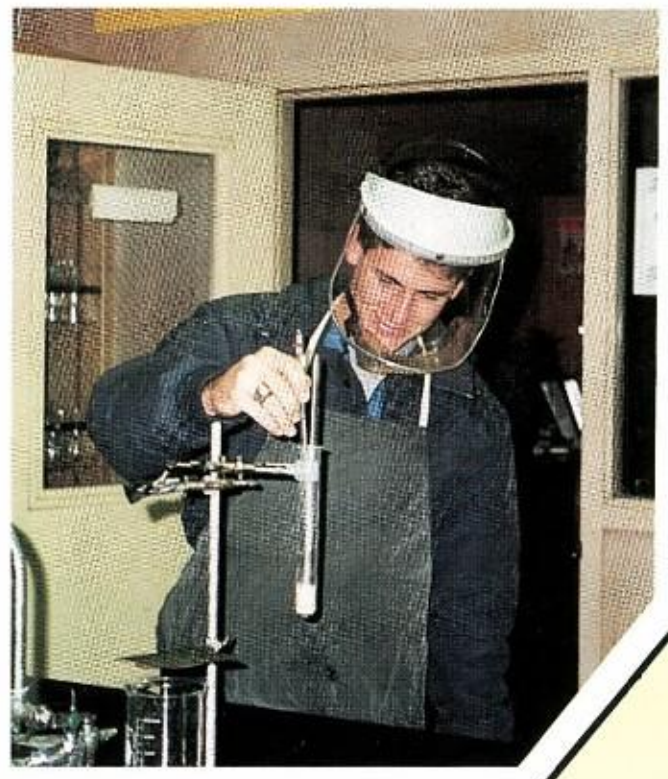
"It's not what I expected."
· Jeremy Berlingeri

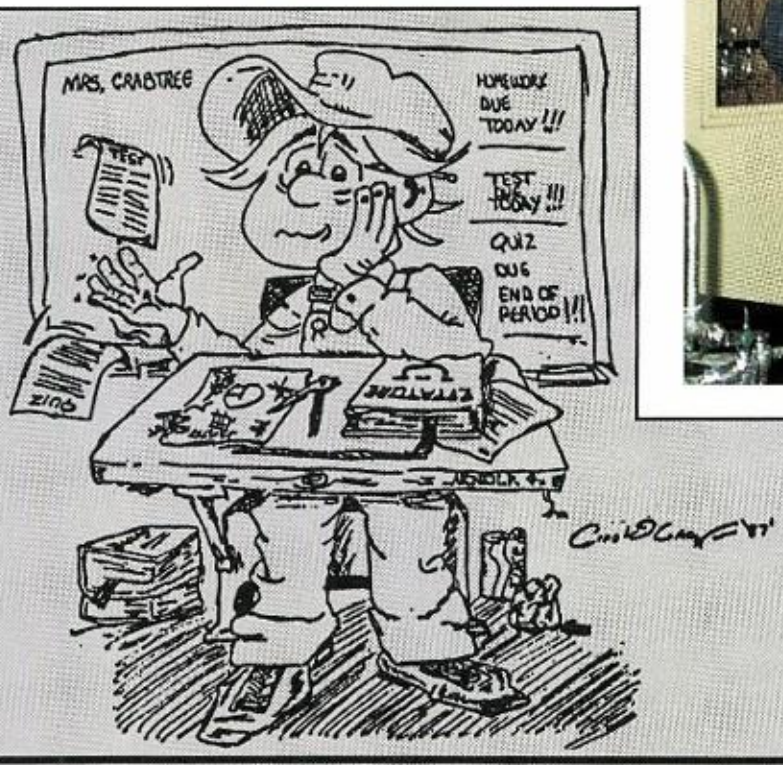
"Hope that my bicycle will carry me far."
· Peter Erickson

"I lacked a real spice in my life, so I began freebasing salt — that left me thirsting for more!"
· Geoff Eubanks

"Classes — I wish I would've gone!"
· Darren Cobb

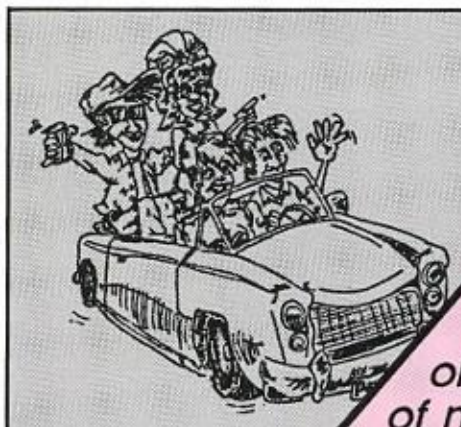






A major part of school took place off campus. Jobs, parties, shopping and going out took up our free time. Going to lunch was always unpredictable. Memories like the first lunch in the cafeteria, the first off-campus lunch at Burger King, having to suffer the humiliation of your mom dropping you off at the movies and your first cruise down Chester Avenue have all brought fun and laughter. These are the memories of high school that last forever.

Behind the Beat



The students of Foothill High School will remember not only the classes and long hours of studying, but also the time with their friends on weekends and nights of no homework. Times filled with laughter and fun made each day of high school more bearable. These memories have made this school year what it is and what it will be forever . . .

Determined to make their senior class unforgettable, the '88 seniors got into the swing of promoting school spirit early in the fall. The seniors put forth their best effort and won not only the first rally, but also the Homecoming Rally.

Not only did they out yell the other three classes, but they showed their enthusiasm by decorating the halls with streamers, curling ribbon, posters, and balloons. Many seniors were at school by 7 a.m. dressing up the school. After the Homecoming game, seniors went to the ''Dress Your Sunday Best'' Homecoming dance, which senior Richard Rugnao spent much time and effort coordinating.

This year was the first for Derek Webster and Kelli Jean Kerslake to be part of the council.

The Senior Class brought many new ideas to Foothill this year, like planning a luau dance and arranging the Senior trip to Mazatlan.

Chances are that you have seen Derek Webster on the Foothill stage many times. Involved in the Spotlighters for all four years at Foothill, Webster's roles have ranged from a Frankenstein-like villain in "Arsenic and Old Lace" to a dashing hero in "Othello". Earlier this year he won first place in a monologue competition and the Best Actor prize at the Shakespeare Festival in Cedar City, Utah. The scene also won First Place, and Derek received a full scholarship to Southern Utah State College.

During his Junior year, Webster played the role of Richie in Bakersfield Civic Light Opera's production of "A Chorus Line." The recipient of numerous drama awards, Derek also attended a seminar for the top drama students in the country at the Ashland, Oregon, Shakespeare Festival.

Can you imagine high school with out friends? Friends are an important part of our lives. They are there to share the good times that would be impossible with out them, and there through the hard times when we need them the most.

Eric Kumpel, Jay Forsythe, Reggie Johnson and Darren Cobb have been friends through Compton Junior High and four years at FHS. Their friendhsip thrives both in and out of school, from driving off campus to lunch to going out on Saturday night.

When asked what their friendship meant to him, Reggie said, "without my friends, high school would be unbearable."

We will always remember our friends after our high school years are long gone because they played a key part in four of the most memorable years of our lives.

Players on East Hills come from North, East, and Highland high schools. East Hills United travels over the West coast to play teams in places such as San Diego and Los Angeles. The team practices year 'round so they can become one of the respected teams in Bakersfield and compete in class A competition. The spirit of the season of ghosts and goblins was renewed by FHS seniors this year! The '88 seniors came together on this 31st of October to show their creativity through costumes ranging from David Meek as a caveman to Gina Reno as a 1920s' flapper. Karen Kaempfer and Lori Hawkins dressed as little old ladies and Trey Martin became a ''beautiful'' Foothill cheerleader for a day. Outstanding Senior

Richard Herrera has diverse energies, contributing his time to athletics, school leadership and community service.

A three-year track and cross-country runner, Richard ran on Foothill's South Yosemite League championship cross-country each year, led the Frosh-Soph and Varsity squads as captain in his Sophomore and Junior years, and received The Coach's Award in his Senior year.

An active La Raza Club member, Richard served as a class representative during his first three years and was elected president of La Raza as a senior. Richard's grades qualified him for the California Scholarship Federation, and he became a CSF Gold Seal Bearer for graduation.

Busy off-campus as a restaurant employee and farm worker during his years at Foothill, Richard also found time to serve as a counselor at the R.M. Pyles Camp for underprivileged children.

Outstanding Senior

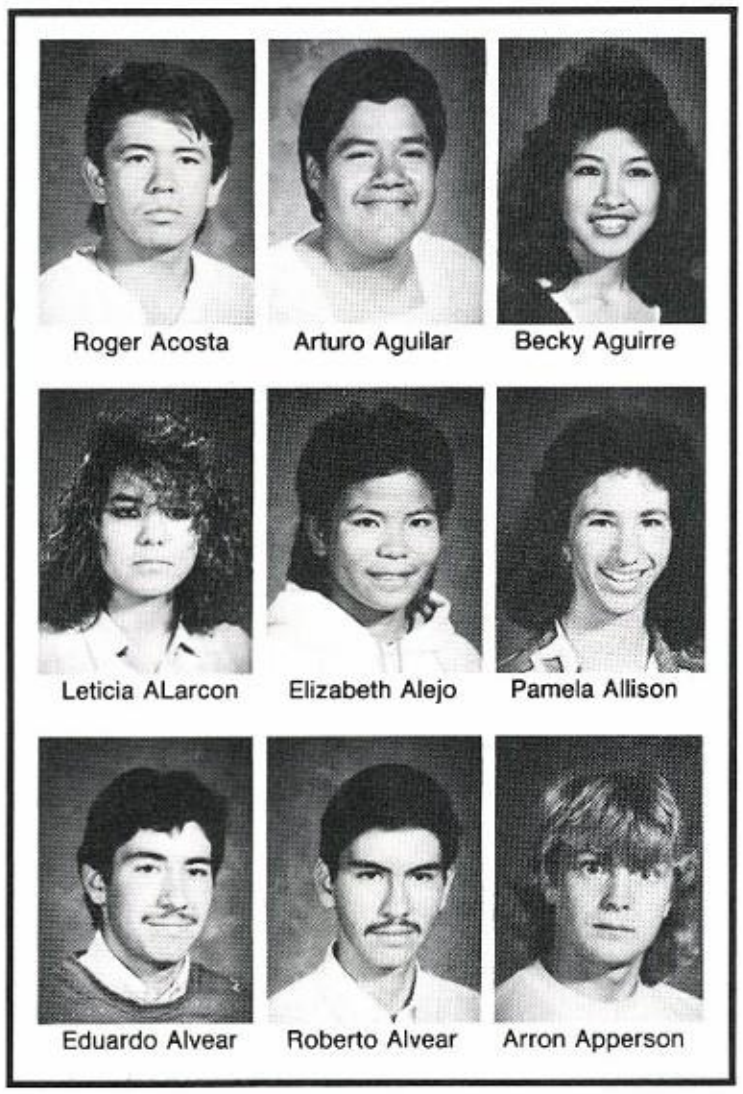
Kathy Bolthouse was a transfer from Michigan, where she was active in drama and both the Marching and Jazz Bands during her Freshman year.

Continuing her stage career at Foothill, Kathy had the lead roles in "Arsenic and Old Lace" and "Our Town" and was selected "Best Actress" in 1987.

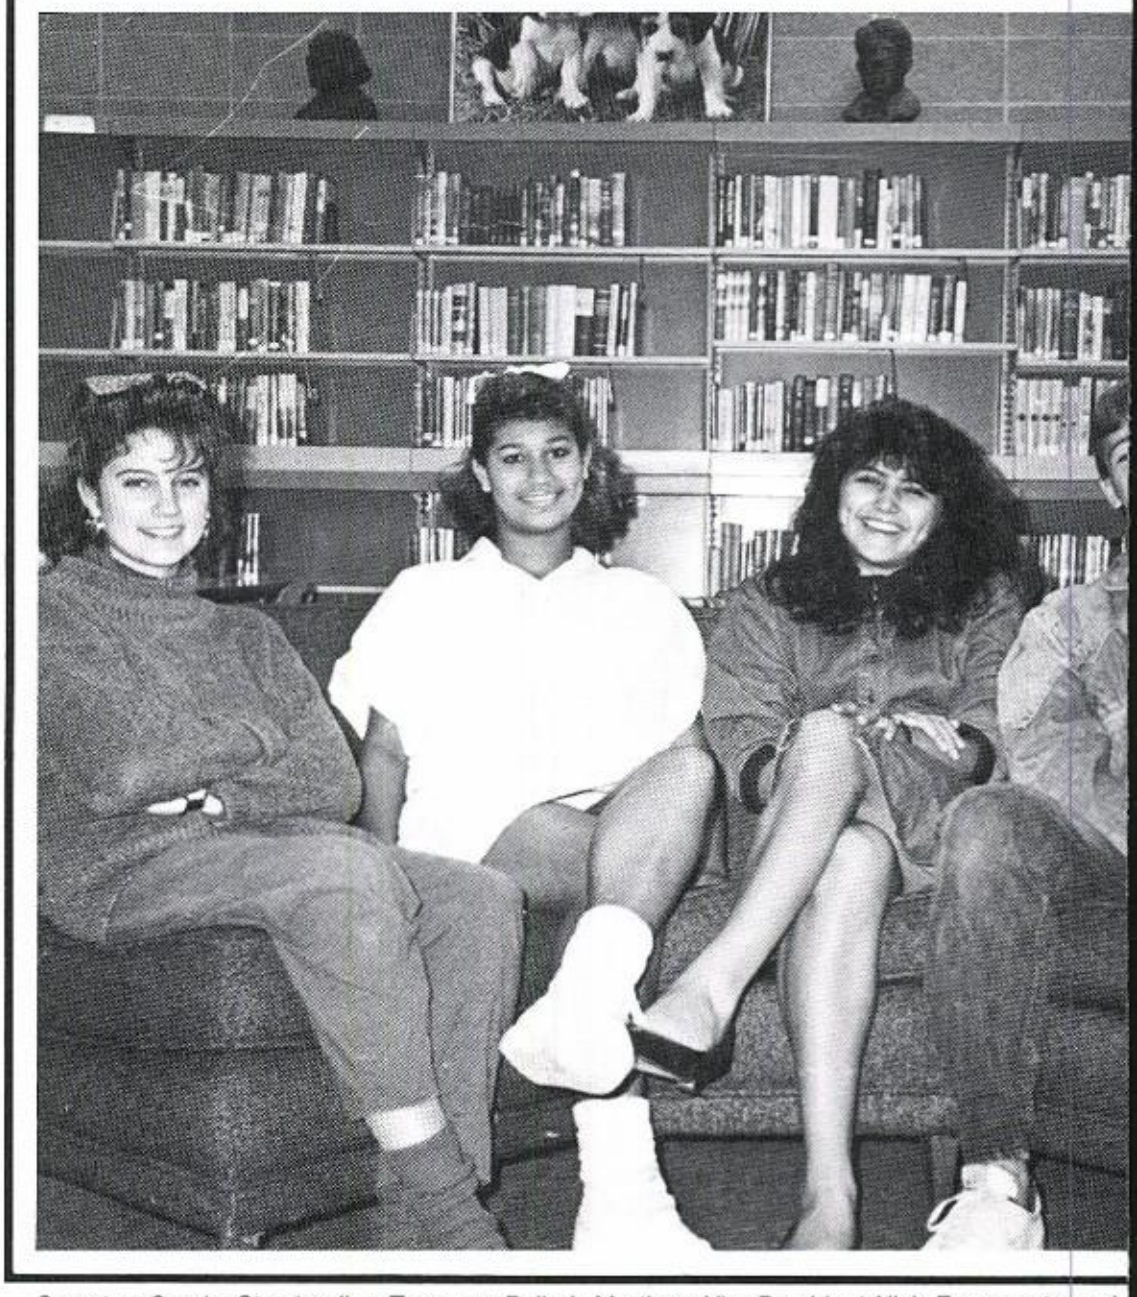
A varsity tennis player, Kathy's academic achievements qualified her for the California Scholarship Federation. She was elected treasurer of Foothill's CSF chapter as a senior and qualified as a Gold Seal Bearer for graduation.

Active in many organizations, Kathy was a member of both the Mock Trial and Academic Decathlon teams and served on the Homecoming Planning Committee and as ASB Commissioner of Publicity.

Kathy was the recipient of both the DAR Good Citizen Award and The Bank of America Plaque Award in Science and Mathematics.



Lead On!



Secretary Sondra Stamboolian, Treasurer Belinda Martinez, Vice President Alicia Espercueta, and President Joe Cooper led the Class of '89.

Junior Class Officers elections were held in May of '87 and resulted in two run-offs, one between Joe Cooper and Tasha Jones for President, the other between Alicia Espericueta and Lisa Sandoval for Vice President. The results were Joe Cooper as President, Alicia Espericueta, Vice President; Sondra Stamboolian, Secretary; and Belinda Martinez, Treasurer.

Their first responsibility was the Junior Class Dance.

"It was a great hit," said Vice President Alicia Espericueta. "We raised over $992 and profited about $730, which I think was due to the tropical drinks we served."

Next was the Junior Class magazine sale, held September 22 through the 29th. The class raised about $2000, but the sale didn't seem to be very successful, according to both President Cooper and Vice President Espericueta.

"It wasn't much of a success because the students didn't put much into it," said Cooper.

Vice President Alicia Espericueta added, "I think it had to do with the magazine sale coming with the Fair."

Receiving a driver's license is a highlight in the life of a sophomore, but while many are still practicing their driving talents in the family station wagon, Keith Knight is cruising around town in his white 1983 Nissan truck.

Keith received his truck for his sixteenth birthday in August of '87.

"It's great because my mom and dad are no longer my taxi cab drivers," said a smiling Knight.

He takes his friends out to lunch during school. On the weekends, they all go out.

When asked about the advantage of having his own wheels, Knight answered, "I get more girls."

"Volleyball is my favorite sport," said sophomore Barbara Medina.

As a hobby, Barbara plays in local business-sponsored tournaments on the weekends. She has been playing volleyball for four years now and is on Foothill's junior varsity team.

Barbara started playing in tournaments when some of her relatives decided to make a team. They have taken two first places, four second places, and numerous thirds. Barbara finds playing competitively challenging and a great way to have fun on weekends.

Rock Beat

Sophomore Chris Martin has been composing music since junior high. He also has put his talent to use by forming a contemporary Christian rock band, "Titus". He and a Highland High friend, Daniel Davis, were sitting at Carl's Jr. one day last year when Chris hit on the idea of forming the band. Daniel agreed, and soon they added Foothill senior Daniel Lassiter.

Titus performs at Canyon Hills Assembly of God Church. Some of Chris' original songs are "Look To You" and "Holding On." Chris sees music as a career after graduation.

Locker Beat

Students use school lockers to store books, notebooks and other accessories, but for freshman, there was an even more important activity for it - to creatively decorate their locker so that it would bring the feeling of their room at home to school. For example, freshmen hung posters of famous people, maybe a mirror, or even pictures of family and friends.

Yvette Luna, Stephanie Holford, Erin Kranz, and Cherine Rodriguez were the Freshman Rally Girls chosen for 1987-88. Their job was to lead the Freshman class in spirit cheers during the rallies.

Judges for the Rally Girl tryouts were the varsity cheerleaders. They looked for two qualities in the girls: how outgoing they were and how much spirit they showed.

James Oliver and Darin Kizer search and search . . .

Where's the gym?

How would you describe a typical freshman? How about a student who carries a lot of books, has pens in the pocket of his jacket, wears a tie, and more than anything, is lost!

We found that this description works well, and we discovered, not one, but two freshmen at Foothill, Darin Kizer and James Oliver, to be perfect examples.

Both of these typical freshmen are in jackets and ties. Both carry a lot of books and have pens in their pockets. But above all, they both look lost.

The Carnival was a Bash!

From dart throws to haircuts, Foothill once again showed school spirit at the Homecoming Carnival, held during lunch on Friday, October 23.

Lunchtime was extended by fifteen minutes to leave more time for fun and games at the Carnival.

Campus clubs filled the quad with food and game booths such as the pizza and bake sale booths, pie throwing, basketball, haircuts and braiding booths, car bash, dart throw, and much more.

"Next year I would like the woodshop classes to build booths and have clubs buy them and have a competition to see which club can decorate the booth the best." said Interact Club advisor Arlene Kindel, sponsor of the event. "This year the students and administration had a lot more enthusiasm than last year."

A New Beginning' Sparks Homecoming

On Monday, October 19th, Homecoming week began. It started with Hat Day, then Tie Day, Twin Day, Pajama Day, and ended on Friday with Black-and-Gold Day.

Despite our loss to East on Homecoming night, October 23rd, spirit was still in the air. The highlight of the night came at halftime, when the Homecoming court - Lena Alvary and Richard Herrera, Julie Covington and Richard Ramirez, Evon Taylor and Archie Wright, Pam Jacobson and Derek Webster - made their way around Trojan Field in brand new, open-topped Volkswagen Cabriolets.

The theme of the night was "A New Beginning." Club floats represented everything from the birth of a baby dinosaur, destined to grow like our Trojan spirit, to the 200-year celebration of the U.S. Constitution. The cheerleaders' float featured a younger generation dressed in Football colors, to represent a new beginning . . . "almost a Trojan."

Halftime ended with the Homecoming Court taking the field, and Archie Wright and Julie Covington crowned as the 1987 Homecoming King and Queen.

The Keywanettes' float celebrated the 200 years of the constitution.

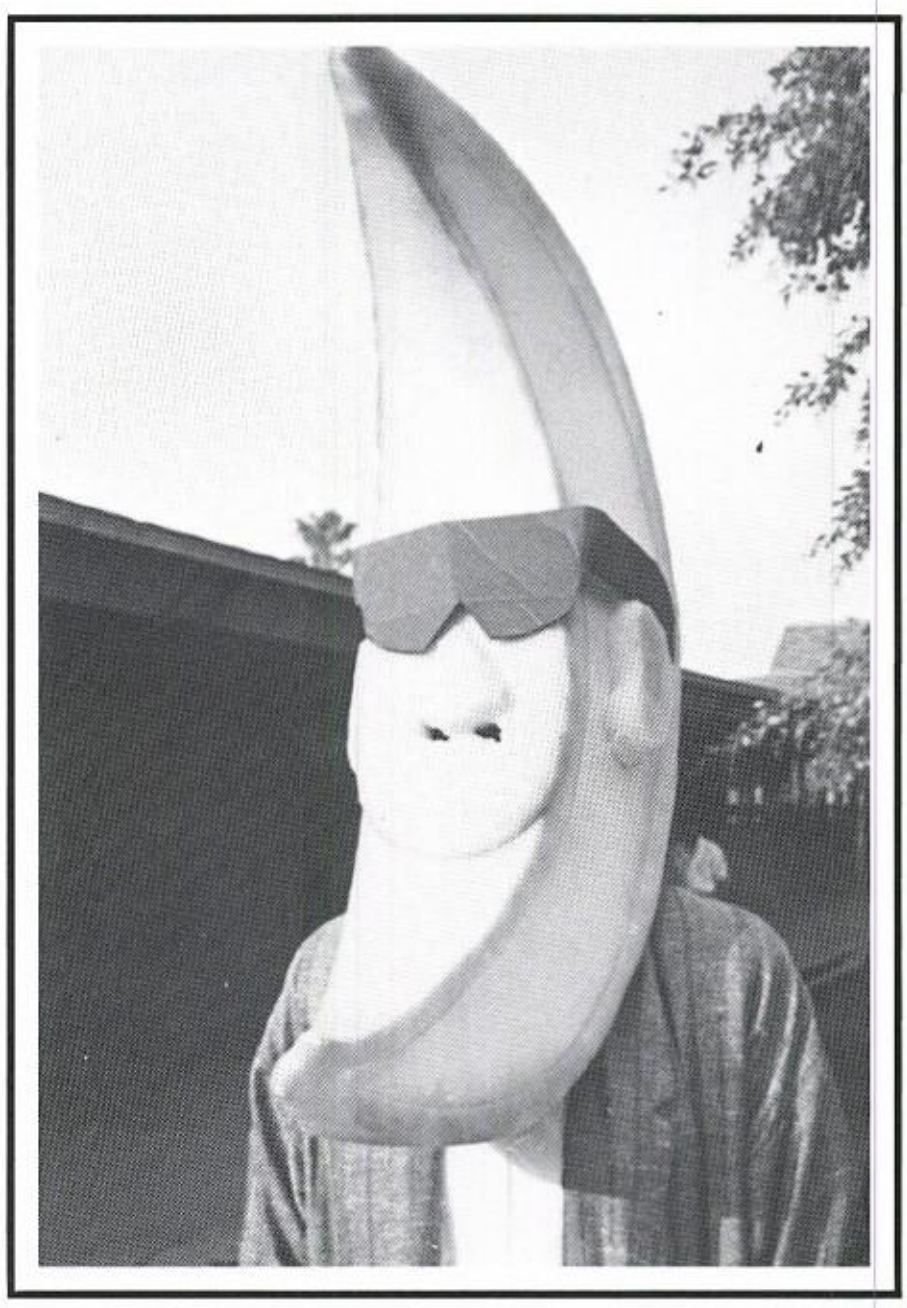
Halloween Costumed the Foothill Campus.

Although Halloween fell on a Saturday, many FHS student celebrated by wearing their costumes on campus Friday.

Students dressed up, from outrageous 1960's hippies like seniors Jeremy Berlingeri and Bobby VanBoening, to the Queen of Hearts, sophomore Nicole Franklin. The Foothill staff also participated in the dress up. Among many costumed staff, Campus Supervisor Dora Olgin was disguised as a Halloween witch and Special Education teacher Marty Lakin came dressed as a hayseed.

"Dressing up was the best part of Halloween, and I enjoyed the free day at school because we didn't have to do much of anything," said junior Shannon Rogers.



The unidentified "Big Mac Tonight" man roamed FHS campus.

Mark Setser and Derek Webster show their talent as "Iago" and "Othello" at the FHS Shakespeare Festival.

"There is a great deal of talent in this small group," said senior Kelli Kerslake, speaking of the FHS drama department. That clearly rang true when Foothill swept the awards from competitions at Chapman, Cal State University at Bakersfield, and Utah State.

At the Utah State College Shakespeare Festival, the drama group won Best Ensemble, with individual awards going to Derek Webster (Best Monologue, Best Performance on a team scene). Junior Scott Miller took eighth place with his performance of Palomon from "Two Noble Kinsmen."

The scene from "Othello" that won the Best Ensemble award in Utah again took the award at the eighteenth annual FHS Shakespeare Festival. Kelli Kerslake and Derek Webster received Best Actress and Best Actor awards for their performances. The drama group was advised by Dr. Peg Pauley.

THE ONES TO BLAME

The staff grew nervous as the deadline came closer and the yearbook was far from being finished. Layouts incomplete, pictures not in, we began to wonder if the yearbook would get done. But on April 15th, the book was completed.

On that first day of school in September, all those signed up for yearbook entered the classroom not knowing how much effort, time, and mostly dedication they would put in to finish this book. But what probably never occurred to them would be the feelings they would have when the book finally arrived, completely original. According to staffer Kathy Bolthouse, "When I saw how the book looked — it made all of the work in the last year worthwhile."

Epic earns All-Valley

The Epic staff started small this year, with six returning reporters. Seniors Lisa LoBasso and Marla Van Schuyver were co-editors.

The staff competed in various competitions capturing the "All-Valley" title from the San Joaquin Valley Journalism Association (SJVJA). Other competitions were Kern Press Club, California Women's Press Club, and Bakersfield College's Student journalism day.

"We always get a 'superior' rating but this was the first time the Epic got "All-Valley" since the year before I was a Freshman at Foothill," said VanSchuyver.

The Team Captains were Jim Maricich and Chad Ackerley. Chad Ackerley also received Most Inspirational. The most Improved player was Odell Smith.

The Junior Varsity Titans ended their season 5-4-1. The Titans were undefeated in pre-season and were 3-4 in SYL after losing the first two games to Arvin and North.

Coaches Julio Mercado and John Minear felt they needed wins in these games to establish themselves as contenders for the league championship. The Titans ended their season with a 17-0 shutout against Highland.

The coaches felt they had a good turnout for Junior Varsity football and a lot of talent, but never really got it together and played as a unit. Outstanding players, according to the coaches, were: Jose Mata, Carroll Hill, Alex Haulman, Mark Tinoco, Brian Pratt, Ronnie Taylor and Jon Baker.

Team awards went to Jose Mata for Most Outstanding, J.W. Beard Most Improved, Matt Wooster Most Inspirational, Carrol Hill Best Defensive Player, Alex Haulman Best Offensive Player and Alex Haulman and Jose Mata were Captains.

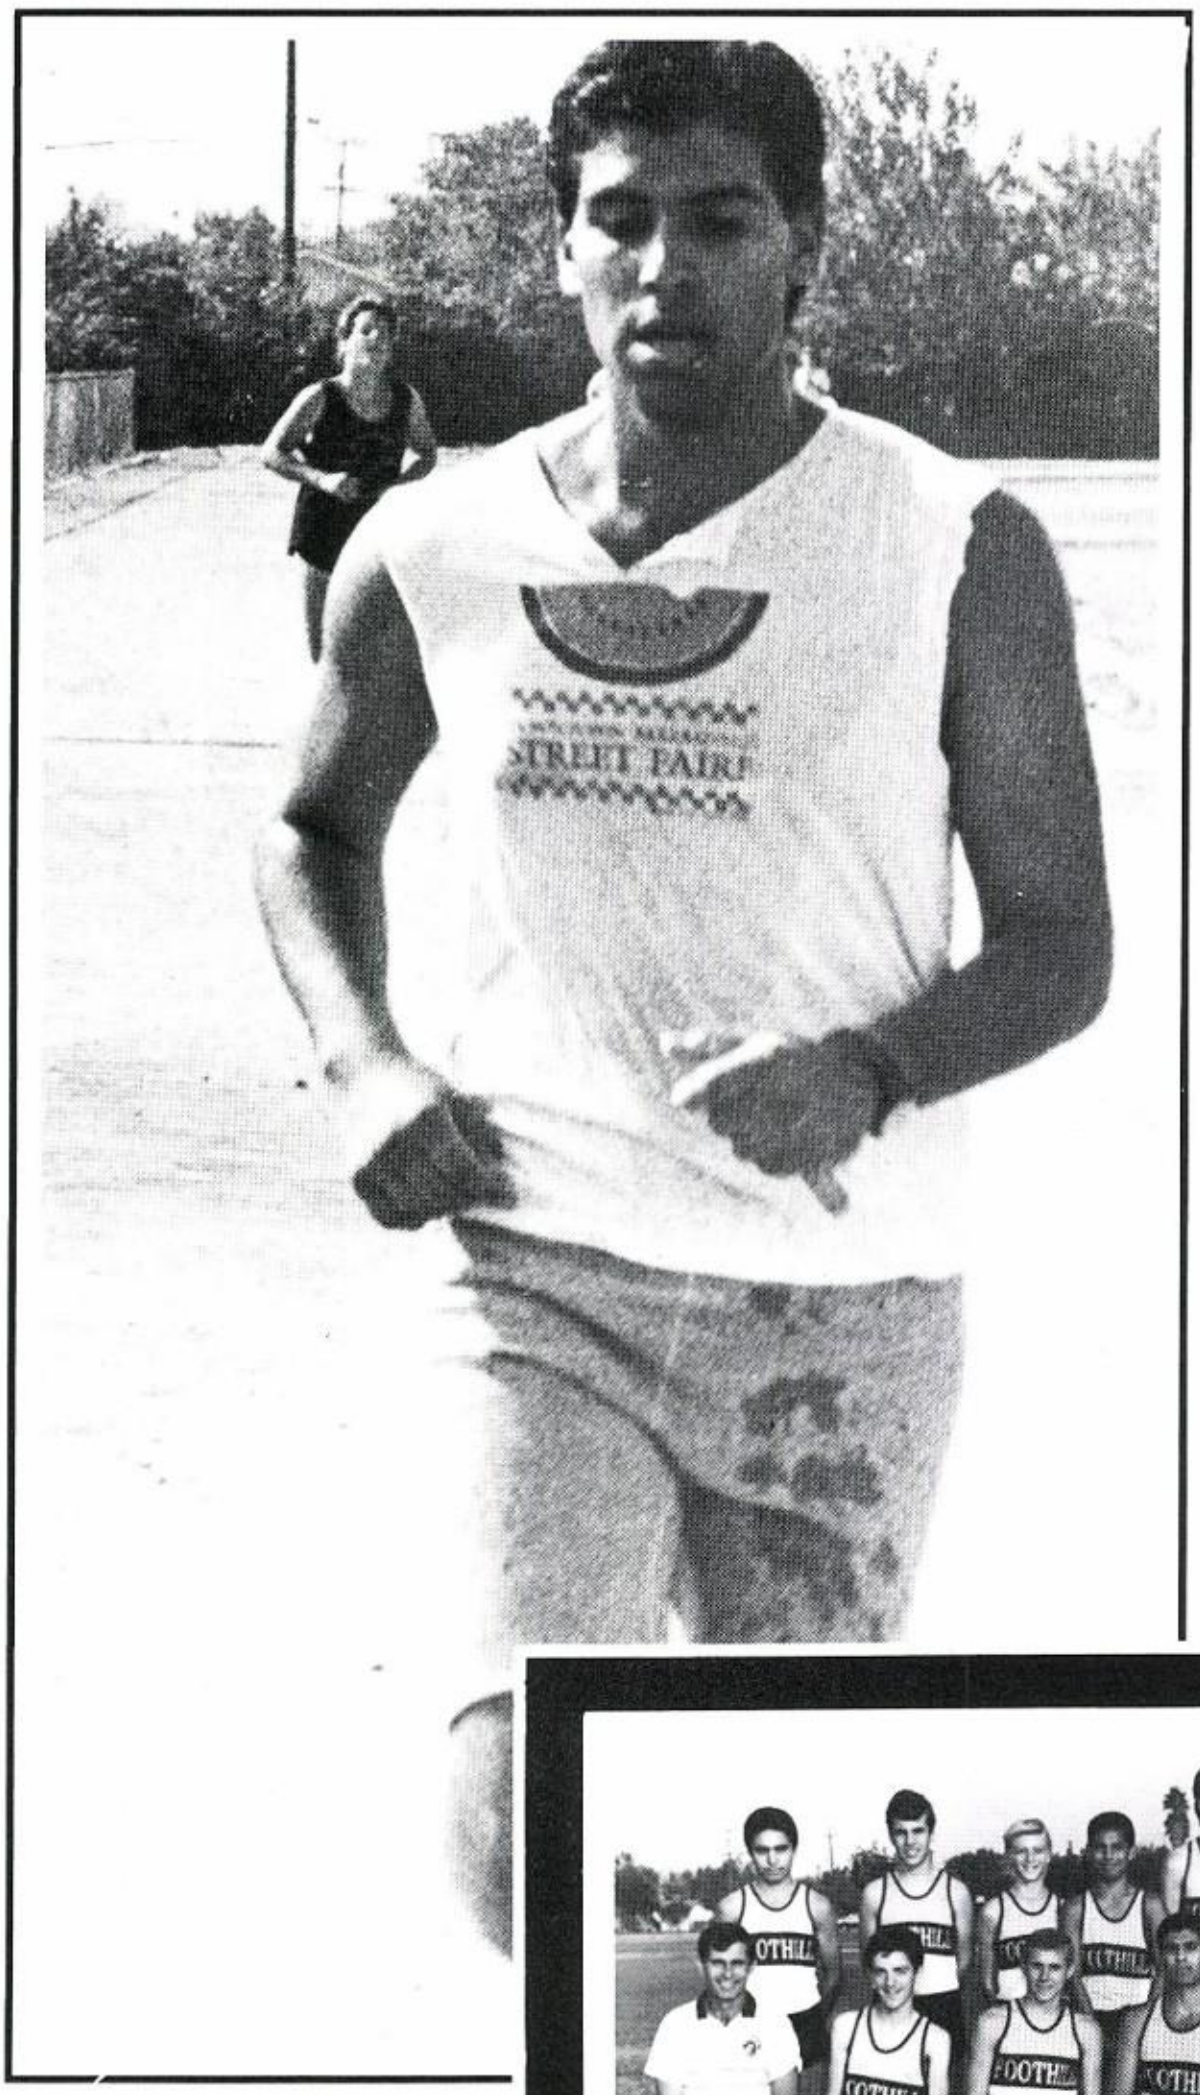
Coaches Chuck Harringer and Fred Acosta discuss team strategy.

Calvillo, Davis Named Outstanding

Fosh/soph football had an "impressive attitude with good team morale," according to coach Kevin Harriger. With a record of 4 wins and 6 losses, Harriger felt that Foothill discovered some successful, new talent. Outstanding players were all freshmen, with the exception of sophomore Robert Calvillo, who received the award for Best Defense.

The rest of the awards go to Konala Davis, Most Valuable, as a fullback and linebacker. Jason Varrey received Most Outstanding Offense and William Dufford was Most Improved Player.

The team's strengths were its consistent balance and ability to run and throw the ball on offense. Despite the lack of speed, according to coach Harriger, the team made up for it by its teamwork on offense.



Ricky Garcia takes a final practice lap.

Runners make history

Winning the SYL championship and ending their season with a dual meet record of 6-1, the boys varsity cross country team added two consecutive championships to FHS history.

According to coach Ted Oliver, key runners were seniors Chris Coyle, Richard Herrera, Paul Contreras, junior Enrique Saenz, and sophomore John Cartier.

Senior leadership was an important factor in team success.

"Everyone had a positive attitude," said Herrera. "Before we raced, we talked about winning."

It all paid off when the squad won the SYL meet, giving Foothill the league championship. Capturing the Division I Area championship enabled the varsity squad to advance to the Valley Finals, where they placed 6th.

Special award winners were Most Valuable Enrique Saenz, Most Inspirational Paul Contreras, Coaches Award Richard Herrera, Most Improved Chris Coyle and John Cartier. Special recognition was given to Richard Herrera and Paul Contreras for joining the All-Time Top Seven varsity runners in Foothill history.

Schuetz Named MVP

The season for volleyball was a touch and go situation. The league had excellent talent throughout, and competition for first place was a struggle for everyone.

Foothill's SYL record was 2-12 and the over-all was 10-16.

"The highlight of the season was the fact that we truly were competitive this year," said David Gelios. "Teams no longer took us for granted. Also, early season play-off appearances in the San Louis Obispo and Highland Tournaments demonstrated significant strides for the FHS volleyball program."

As the season came to an end, Kara Schuetz was noticed as an outstanding player. A sophomore lettering for her second time, she was named both 2nd Team, All-Area and 2nd Team, All-League.

"Shannon Rogers, a junior lettering for her third time, and Kristin Matheny, a junior lettering for her first time, were also strong players for the Trojans," added Gelios.

Awards went to Most Valuable Player Kara Schuetz, Most Improved Player Samantha Garcia, and Most Inspirational Kristin Matheny.

Gelios believes, "that the 1988 version of the volleyball team will return with some excellent talent and experience so things could go even better!"

Basketball takes it all!

As expected, the boys varsity basketball team dominated the SYL with a 13-1 record, the lone loss going to Bakersfield High, our SYL co-champs.

The Trojans' success was due in part to the time and effort given by coach Dan Shannon and assistant coach David Reese. Shannon deservedly won the basketball Coach of the Year award.

Key players for the championship team were: All-League and All-Area Most Valuable Player Arthur Charles, McDonald's All-American and first team All-Leaguer Archie Wright, first team All-Leaguer and Southern Section play-off Most Valuable Player Reggie Phillips, and first team All-Leaguer Donte Glinton.

Highlights from the '88 season included key play-off wins against Oceanside-El Camino (68-66 in double-overtime), La Palma-Kennedy (71-64) and San Diego-Madison (62-60). The win over Madison earned FHS the title of Division II Southern California Regional Champs, and enabled the Trojans to play for the State Title in Oakland.

On March 19 the Foothill Trojans accomplished a never-before feat matched by another Kern County team. By beating Menlo-Atherton by a score of 66-61, the Trojans claimed the 1988 Division II State Basketball Championship title. The win topped off a 12-game winning streak and a 27-4 overall season record.

LADY TROJANS drive to SYL #1

Foothill's Lady Trojan basketball team finished number one in the South Yosemite League (SYL), with a record of 13-1, for the first time in its 12-year history. The team made it to Valley semifinals before being disqualified by Mt. Whitney (52-50), ending their overall record at 18-6.

Key SYL wins for the girls were over North (52-42), South (50-41), and Bakersfield (63-52) high schools.

"We beat South for our league opener," said coach Connie Minear. "They were highly rated and a loss would have changed the team's outlook for the season. However, the win gave us confidence and set our sails towards success."

Other highlights were against North and BHS at BC.

"We beat North High at home (72-70) and at North (52-42) for the first time in school history," commented Minear. "The finale battle was beating BHS at BC in a 20-point dominating team effort to get revenge for the one-point loss earlier in the season."

Outstanding players were seniors Caryn Claiborne, center; Cynthia Simington, power forward; Leah Brownlee, forward; junior guard Lorraine Spencer, and sophomore guards Stephanie Childs and Kara Schuetz.

The awards had a place for everyone on the team. Nikki Grant received Most Hustle award, Audrey Mitchell, Eager Beaver award; Jannette Garza, Most Inspirational; Caryn Claiborne, Captain and Best Big Man.

Cynthia Simington was selected Most Valuable Player, All-League and All-Area. Tammy Bailey was Best Returning Big Man, Leah Brownlee was Captain and Most Improved; Kara Schuetz was Most Dedicated Nonstarter; Stephanie Childs was Rookie of the Year, And Lorraine Spencer was Best Defense.

Soccer has best season

The varsity boys soccer team was the best ever, winning more games than in the previous four years combined. Their overall record of 7 wins, 6 losses, and 2 ties led them to 2nd place in the SYL.

"The first step was to make them believe in themselves," said Coach Hank Hinse. This was the first year at FHS for Hinse, who has coached for 15 years. Hinse is a former Danish professional soccer player.

"He's a good coach. I learned a lot from him. He makes the team work together," said Eduardo Perez. Perez will play for the California Selection team, chosen by 22 SYL coaches.

"The team started off slow, but toward the end they learned to work together and was able to play with the power teams of the league," said senior Chris Coyle.

"This by far is the best season we ever had," said fullback Jeremy Berlingeri.

Dedication sparks Girls Soccer

"The girls soccer team's improvement and better team play was due to the dedication of the starting players," said center forward Pam Jacobson.

The words "improvement" and "better team play" stand out when you note the scores of games against teams such as Garces and East, both of which were close, 2-1 losses. Coach Don Reim regarded both opponents as "powerhouse teams, and the girls soccer team did a good job against them."

"The record of 3-10 comes from the team's motivation," said Reim.

"We could have pulled off a lot of wins against some of the stronger teams," said goalie and fullback Lisa Puget, "but the lack of experience on our team (with a coach and players both new to soccer) kept us in the learning stage."

The strengths on the team, according to Reim, were Lori Hawkins at center fullback and Pam Jacobson at center forward. Awards went to Lori Hawkins for Most Valuable, Jennifer Bagby for Most Improved, Jennifer Hartenberger for Highest Grade Point Average (3.8) and Shannon Cambers, Most Inspirational.

Pam Jacobson was selected All-Area, and Jacobson and Lori Hawkins were selected All-SYL.

Softball Starts Strong

The Varsity Softball season began on a high note, with wins over Bakersfield High and Highland in a pre-season tournament. The Trojans held on to a winning attitude.

"A hard 14-inning loss to South hurt, but it showed our team that we are capable to battle with any other team in the SYL this year," commented centerfielder Shannon Rogers.

Other wins earlier in the season were against Arvin and Highland. "The '88 season was an improvement from past years mainly because the defense and batting were better," according to pitcher Shannon Chambers.

The key players were pitcher Shannon Chambers, catcher Stephaine Gorden, and 1st baseman Tammie Rankin.

A learning year

The 1988 boys' tennis team's strengths were dedication and willingness to learn, according to first-year coach Don Reim.

Outstanding players were foreign-exchange students Bjorn Moller, Mikko Vanhala, and David Shumaker. The lack of experience in match play was the major weakness of the young team, but they were always learning and using new techniques in matches.

Girls walk after win

Senior doubles players, along with junior Pam Allison, led the 1988 girls' tennis team. The team, coached by Laura Ghilarducci, had their most disappointing match at East High on March 18, when they lost the match 6-7 in a tie-breaker game.

The highlight of the season came after their pre-season scrimmage in Shafter. Their "reliable" van carrying the tennis team quit at the corner of Fairfax and East Brundage Lane. The entire team got to walk back to school after winning their scrimmage.

Dr. Bruce takes charge

For this 1987-88 year at Foothill, the school received an ambitious new leaders, Principal Dr. Bill Bruce and Assistant Principal Bill Jones. Their aim is to regain Foothill's statue as a leading school in Bakersfield.

Dr. Bruce wants to continue to develop student pride in their school and themselves. What better way to let the student enjoy school more, but through improved attendance. Dr. Bruce, along with teachers and parents, want Foothill to be a place where students want to come, learn and have fun too. Along with this idea came the intermural games during lunch, planned to keep many students on campus participating in the fun, organized games.

"I'm always looking for new things to do," said Dr. Bruce.

Counseling means helping — in & out of school

This years administration, teachers and staff, include many who have traveled to various places around the world. Counselor Sue Nash has traveled to New England with her husband and is planning to tour Europe this summer. Besides being a traveler at heart, Nash is currently involved in the Assistance League, a program set up to help cloth school children who otherwise might not attend school because of lack of clothing.

The Assistance League has a store called The Bargain Box, where a volunteer staff works Saturdays to provide services to these needy students.

"It's just like a regular department store, where students get to walk around and pick up one complete outfit," she said, "from underclothes to pants, socks, and shoes. The clothes are donated from local stores or by families. Qualified students can receive one complete outfit every semester."
